The Arc of Greensboro - founded in 1953, The Arc provides advocacy and programs for people with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities and also for their families.

The SPRED (Special Religious Education) program serves children and adults with challenges such as Down syndrome, autism, and learning disabilities.

Room At The Inn

Room At The Inn provides housing and programs for single pregnant women and mothers to find new lives of healthy, hope-filled independence.

BackPack Beginnings distributes basic needs to more than 23,000 children through their 200 community partners and their Family Market.

Operation LAMB (from the Biblical "Least Among My Brethren") provides support and aid throughout NC for people with intellectual disabilities.

Special Olympics provides sports training and athletic competition for children and adults with intellectual disabilities.

The Pregnancy Network is a Christian organization serving women who need help and support to face unplanned pregnancies without fear.

The Knights of Columbus Council 13236 was founded at St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church in 2003. Since then, we have grown into one of the most dynamic and accomplished councils in North Carolina.

Each year we raise funds, donate thousands of dollars, and provide support for charitable organizations and activities including:

- Operation LAMB
- Special Olympics of North Carolina
- Room at the Inn
- The Pregnancy Network
- March for Life
- SPRED Program
- Veterans Helping Veterans Heal
- Backpack Beginnings
- Support for Military Families
- The ARC of Greensboro
- Greensboro Urban Ministry

All proceeds from our Annual Charity Golf Tournament are donated to local charities and organizations.
